

WWW.DAVIDCLARK.COM

Series 9900 Wireless Intercom System

Product Bulletin

Application Focus:

Airline Push-Back Operations

David Clark Company Wireless Headset Communication Systems provide maximum freedom and mobility, as well as clear communication, for airport ramp personnel involved in push-back operations. Ramp safety is dramatically improved, as tug operators, ramp agents and flight deck personnel all maintain full situational awareness through crisp, clear and constant communications.

KEY COMPONENTS

PUSH-BACK GATEWAY

BELT STATIONS

HEADSETS

CHARGERS

KEY FEATURES

- Hands-free, full-duplex intercom – DECT based technology
- Crisp, clear communication in demanding environments
- Rugged, durable construction – marine-grade components
- Unique configurations for tug operator and ramp agents
- Secure signaling prevents unwanted interception
- Up to four users per Gateway – expanded capability
- Reliable working range of up to 300 feet (approx. 100m) from Gateway

TYPICAL SYSTEM

